

2016 Winter Field Day

Tuesday, December 13, 2016 | Termuende Research Ranch, Lanigan, SK

1:00 PM to 4:00 PM

		Minutes
12:45 PM	- 1:00 PM	15:00.0	Come grab a coffee and a seat
1:00 PM	- 1:05 PM	05:00.0	Welcome and Opening Remarks
1:05 PM	1:20 PM	15:00.0	WBDC Update and Overview
1:20 PM	2:00 PM	40:00.0	Presentation by Jason Williams (Tru-Test) & Live Weighing Demo
2:00 PM	2:10 PM	10:00.0	Pack up and head to first site - Stage of Maturity
2:10 PM	2:40 PM	30:00.0	Stage of Maturity - Presentation by Graduate Student Courtney O'Keefe
			Attendees will see Year 2 of this study underway. O'Keefe will explain the project and share Year 1 results of her Master's study that examines two different cutting times - soft dough/late milk and hard dough - for barley, oats and triticale that is being swathgrazed by 120 cows (6 treatments x 2 replicates x 10 hd per replicate). Preliminary research on time of cutting was conducted by Dr. Greg Penner and Cristine Rosser. Funding for this project comes from ADF, WGRF and ALMA.
2:40 PM	2:50 PM	10:00.0	Pack up and travel to second site - 3 vs 9 d Corn Allocations with and without hay provision
2:50 PM	3:30 PM	40:00.0	3 vs 9 Day Allocations of Corn - Presentation by Graduate Student Breanna Anderson
			Attendees will see Year 2 of this study underway. Anderson will explain the project and share Year 1 results of her Master's study that looks at revisiting recommendations for grazing standing corn. Typically, WBDC recommends a 3 day allocation, however, in this project we compare 3 and 9 d allocations with and without the provision of a fibre source. Learn about the numerous metrics being captured in order to provide solid recommendations on grazing standing corn. Funding for this project comes from ADF and SCA.
3:30 PM	3:40 PM	10:00.0	Pack up and travel back to yard for warm-up and dessert
3:40 PM	4:00 PM	20:00.0	Closing Remarks
			Listen to a few closing remarks and visit with WBDC researchers, staff and students while warming up with a cup of cocoa or coffee and a warm dessert.
4:00 PM			Everyone travel home safely!

Agenda subject to change without notice. Please dress for the weather - December windchills can be brutal!